

Low Level ESL News

For the week of May 2nd, 2016

Story 1: Weather

Here is the weather for this week. On Tuesday May 3rd it will be cloudy with some sun the high will be 19 and the low 12. On Wednesday it will rain. The high for Wednesday is 17 the low 11. It will rain again on Thursday. The high will be 15 and the low 10. On Friday it will be sunny with some clouds. The high for Friday will be 18 with a low of 12.

Story 2: Grouse Grind Opens

Do you like to hike? The Grouse Grind in North Vancouver opened on April 30th. This hiking trail goes up 853 meters from the bottom. There are about 3,000 stairs to climb and it usually takes people about two hours to finish. Every year about 150,000 people hike up the Grind. It is popular with people who live in and around Vancouver as well as tourists. To learn more about the Grouse Grind visit the website at: www.grousemountain.com/grousegrind.

Story 3: Children's Festival

Come to Granville Island in Vancouver for the Children's Festival. The festival began many years ago in 1978. This year the festival starts on May 30th and finishes on June 5th, 2016. There will be music, dances, storytelling and many other activities for children. You can buy your tickets at www.childrenfestival.ca. One adult ticket is $25 and for a child it is $15.