

Answer Key

Religions and Babies

Hans Rosling

TED Lectures
Note-taking Activity

1. Because religions stop women from having a limited number of children.
2. By 2100, there will be 2 billion children.
3. No, there is no connection.
4. 80%
5.
  1. Low child mortality rates.
  2. People need to rise above extreme poverty – children do not need to work.
  3. Access to family planning.
  4. Women get educated and join the labour force.
6. Because more people have been born in the last 30 years, so the population will rise.
7. Religion has very little to do with the rise in population in the world.