

Answer Key

Apology and Compensation

Digital Archive

Note-taking activity

1. His wife was interned.
2. 22,000.
3. No. No Japanese was ever charged with an act of disloyalty.
4. Brian Mulroney
5. An apology and a fund for the Japanese community.
6. The USA.
7. $21,000.
8. – people convicted of refusing to go to the camps will have their names cleared.
 - $12 million for a Japanese community fund.
 - $24 million for a Canadian race relations foundation.
9. $300 million.
10. BC
11. The money recognizes they had something stolen, and the apology means they can be proud of their past.