

Answer Key
The Mystery of Chronic Pain
TED Lectures
Note-taking Activity

1. He is an anaesthesiologist and a pediatrician.
2. Both a symptom and a disease.
3. Ten percent of the time.
4. Chronic pain.
5. A sprain that happened at a dance rehearsal/class.
6. The sense of excruciating burning pain from the lightest touch.
7. The cells activate the neurotransmitters in other nerves and start a pain loop or positive feedback loop.
8. Painkillers, local anaesthetics for certain nerves, physical and occupational therapy and psycho-therapy.
9. A cured patient.
10. There will be new drugs for treatment that will control the glial cells.