

Answer Key
A Moral Obligation
Digital Archive
Note-taking Activity

1. They get to vote.
2. Eritrea.
3. He feels empowered – he can choose to vote for whomever he wishes in Canada. In Eritrea, he was told whom to vote for.
4. He sees no reason for the separation since there is no war and no hatred in Canada.
5. Republican or Democrat.
6. Any of the following: Liberal, Tory, N.D.P., Reform.
7. She prefers the Canadian electoral system to the American one and feels a person's vote has more weight or effect in Canada.
8. He feels it is a moral obligation not just a right and that we have the opportunity to participate in the political system.