

Answer Key
The Danger of Science Denial
TED Lectures
Note-taking Activity

1. The lifespan of each successive generation is increasing.
2. Smallpox is no longer killing people.
3. Vaccines, modern medicine, the ability to feed billions of people.
4. One billion people.
5. People put their beliefs before the facts.
6. That people have lost faith in science and have become skeptical.
7. No.
8. The vaccination rate is decreasing.
9. Twenty.
10. Just because there is no polio in the United States today doesn't mean there won't be tomorrow.
11. Their benefits cannot be proven scientifically.
12. Because it is an argument of lies – all food has been modified over time.
13. 70%
14. The developed countries do not want people to eat this kind of food.