

Not Welcome Anymore

CBC Digital Archive

Note-taking activity

Answer Key

1. 15,000 Chinese men were brought to Canada.
2. The Chinese men made $\frac{1}{2}$ the wage of whites.
3. In 1885, the railroad was completed and 1000's of Chinese hit the labour force.
4. The government started a head tax of $50 than $500.
5. The poverty in China was far worse than paying the head tax.
6. He sold farmed produce.
7. They both wanted the same jobs but the Chinese would work for less money.
8. Unions denied the Chinese membership.
9. The Anti-Asian League held a meeting near Chinatown.
10. The men at the meeting ran through Chinatown wrecking shops and beating up the Chinese.
11. The Yellow Peril was fear that the Chinese would ruin the British way of life.
12. The Chinese Exclusion Act was passed in 1923.
13. Canadian born Chinese were forced to register with the government.
14. The ratio of Chinese men to women was 10 men per 1 woman.
15. Tom Louie bought a house on Vancouver's West Side.
16. People were very upset and The Vancouver Sun ran a front page article.